

International Household Goods

Connecting a Shrinking World with Dedicated Services

Globalization, business expansion, economic trends and advanced technology are all making the world a smaller place. Companies need mobility to compete in the world market. Efficiently moving a transferee's possessions is the core of any successful relocation and overseas assignment. A successful transfer results from creating an accurate budget, trained crews, superior packing/transit, state-of-art storage, minimal insurance risk, combined with thorough communication and excellent coordination.

Client Confidence

A preferred vendor of Fortune 500 companies, NGOs and government entities, Agility's International Household Goods division has earned a loyal clientele with a proven track record of success. Agility is committed to delivering on time and within budget, along with simplifying the process for you and your transferees. We maintain high-level service and low costs through our comprehensive network and strategic facilities. Managing over 10,000 international moves per year, Agility is as capable in remote and potentially risky areas as any metropolis or its' surrounding suburbs. We provide every service needed to transfer household goods from any origin to any destination. For decades, organizations of all sizes have turned to Agility to ensure a smooth and cost effective move for their mobile workforce.

What We Do:

No shipment is too small or complex; no location is too remote. Organizations worldwide think of Agility first when relocating their valued employees. We manage your move with:

- Door-to-door Service
- Objective Agent Selection
- In-house Arrangements for Direct Control
- Export Packing at Residence
- On-site Personnel
- Licensed Sea and Air Freight Forwarding
- Secure Storage
- Debris Removal
- Insurance and Risk Management
- Customs Brokerage
- Settling-in Services

Local Expertise Internationally

With over 550 offices in more than 100 countries, Agility has more assets in more countries around the world than any other household goods forwarder. In addition to our worldwide service centers, we operate dedicated warehousing facilities in major U.S. metropolitan locations. What makes our global network most effective is the prompt communication, local expertise, and personal response we give to each customer.

Agility improves your relocation experience with:

- Single-source Accountability
- Advanced Technology for Constant Communication
- Tailored Process to Meet Specific Needs

What Sets Us Apart:

Agility is recognized as one of the international moving industry's most fiscally sound companies. With significant assets and a diverse service portfolio, Agility delivers expertise and financial stability-the formula for a successful international move.

Agility delivers with:

- Expert Tenured Personnel
- State-of-the-art Warehousing
- Hands-on Management Control

Contact Your American Region Expert for Personalized Service

Anne Bradley
Business Development Manager
T +1 203 381 7700
abradley@agilitylogistics.com

Agility International Inc.
500 Long Beach Boulevard, Stratford, Connecticut, United States, 006615
T +1 203.381.7700 | F +1 203.381.7720 | abradley@agilitylogistics.com

